

I am very disturbed about Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. Regardless of which side of the political debate a person is on, this free usurpation of the public airwaves for a clearly biased purpose subverts our democratic purpose and is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

It is vital that the FCC strengthen the rules that govern media ownership by large conglomerates. Please consider this as Sinclair's stations seek to have their licenses renewed. Please also stop Sinclair from having its stations air "Stolen Honor" before the election or insist that they also show a pro-Kerry film such as "Going Upriver" immediately after they show "Stolen Honor."

Thank you.
